Dr. Venkatesh – a rising star in Upanyasam

BY D S RAJAGOPALAN

Thirukudanthai Venkatesh, a medical practitioner by profession is a self-developed upanyasakar and comes from a family without spiritual background

His parents are bank employees and he hails from Kumbakonam. During his school days, Venkatesh used to recite a shloka daily with meaning during prayer time

He developed the art of writing poems in

Tamil, English and Sanskrit during his college days. His flair for the language with the clarity in delivery of spiritual messages naturally led him to perform Upanyasams.

Venkatesh's maiden Upanyasam when he was 20 during the famous Nachiyar Koil Kal Garuda Seva

Venkatesh delivered a thirty-day Thiruppavai Upanyasam during the Margazhi month in 2013 at Sri Sarangapani Swamy temple at Kumbakonam.

Venkatesh's spiritual initiation was at the feet of Sirupuliyur Annan Swami of Srirangam.

He learnt traditional texts viz Sri Bashyam, Gita Bashyam, Bhagavat Vishayam, Rahasya Granthas, Tatparya Chandrika, Vishnu Purana under Villur Nadadoor Sri Bashyasimhasanam Dr. Karunakarachariar swami and Advanced philosophy and Nyaaya under Kaniyampakkam Sri U.Ve. Devanathachariar Swami

Besides, he was trained in Sama Veda by Brahmasri Subramanya Sastirigal

He is known for devotional infotainment with plenty of absorbing data presented in a captivating style without deviating from the main topic in a structured manner with short stories which is well acclaimed.

Venkatesh commences the Upanyasam with a poem composed by him mentioning the place and other details which would give the gist of the discourse

Relevant humor and fitting references from modern day poetry are the hallmarks of his lectures.

He is well known for attracting youth to his spiritual discourses and has already completed over 15 years in this field and toured Australia, New Zealand, UAE, Singapore, Europe, UK, the US among others for delivering spiritual lectures.

On the reception for present day Upanyasams Dr. Venkatesh says “People from different walks of life are very much interested and listen with rapt attention if the content is in their preferred format; youngsters don't feel shy to come forward and ask their doubts; overall, the appeal is very good.”

'Availability of huge content in Social Media has not affected the strength of the audience to live Upanyasams; many have told me that listening in person gives a totally different experience,” he says.

Venkatesh, so far, won titles, awards such as 'Viruvirai Vendhan', 'Vaishnava Ratna',

Pravachana Vidyadhara', 'Sri Ramanuja

Sevasri from Los Angeles Divya Prabhanda Group, Parasara Bhatta Dasar to name a few Thirukudanthai Venkatesh is one of the sought-after upanyasakars now.

Beer bottles decorate temple walls

The walls of Veerabadrar temple in Madhava Perumal Koil Street in Mylapore is decorated with beer bottles by some urchins though they know very well that such acts hurt the sentiments of devout Hindus and temple goers.

Not only beer bottles but unused items such as discarded mattresses broken furniture and left over of non vegetarian dishes are found strewn around the temple walls temple to keep pongal and on auspicious days the streets will overflow with devotees.

As this is Aadi month lots of devotees are coming to Mundakakanni Amman

If this stretch is cleaned by the Corporation and made usable traffic also can be diverted through this stretch.

“We are fed up of making complaints to the Corporation authorities but Urbser workers pass the stretch as if this is in Pakistan. Nothing has been achieved despite numerous representations. We leave it to Lord Veerabadrar to help solve the issues,” says a resident with frustration.

Amrutanjan pays rental arrears on temple property

The Kapaleeswarar Temple administration received a check last week for Rs 8.77 Crore towards rental arrears from Amrutanjan, which had taken 14.910 ground of land on lease from the temple.

The lease for the property on Luz Church Road began in 1901 for a period of 99 years. After the temple won a legal battle to fix fair rent, the arrears were handed over to P. Vijayakumar Reddy chairman board of trustees of the temple.

A 10 percent of the amount was deducted as TDS by the company. Efforts will be taken to get the amount back, a release said.

Amritraj calls on tennis legend R Krishnan in mylapore

BY PRAKASH M SWAMY

Tennis and Hollywood star Ashok Amritraj called on the legendary tennis champion Ramanathan Krishnan at his house in Mylapore recently and extended birthday greetings to the former Davis Cup captain as he turns 90 next April. He also met with Ramesh Krishnan, another tennis legend of his times.

“Met with Krishnan's in Madras and they look good especially the father Ramanathan who turns 90 next April. Ramanathan Krishnan was one of India's greatest and our first Davis Cup captain when we made it to the finals in 1974,” he wrote in the social media expressing his happiness and joy

Born on April 11 in 1937 in Nagercoil, Krishnan turned pro in 1953 as a right handed amateur. He was among the world's leading players in the 1950s and 1960s. He was twice a semifinalist at Wimbledon in 1960 and 1961 and reaching as high as World No. 3

He led India to the Challenge Round of the 1966 Davis Cup against Australia and was the non playing captain when Vijay

Amritraj and Anand Amritraj led India into the 1974 Davis Cup finals against South Africa. He was active from 1953 to 1975 and won 69 singles titles

Krishnan honed his skills under his father the late T. K. Ramanathan, a veteran based player. He soon made his mark on the national circuit, sweeping all the junior titles. Krishnan qualified for –1953 Wimbledon and became the first Asian player to win the boys' singles title at Wimbledon

Krishnan won the Queen's Club Championships title. He played in the men's singles competition at the 1959 Wimbledon. These performances gained Krishnan seventh seeded status at Wimbledon in 1960, where he reached the semi-finals

He again reached the Wimbledon semi-finals by beating Emerson in straight sets in the quarter-finals but lost in the semis to eventual champion Laver

Krishnan received his highest seeding at Wimbledon at No. 4 in 1962 but had to withdraw after three matches due to an ongoing ankle injury. He won the National Lawn

Tennis Championships for a record eight times and reached ten finals. Krishnan won the Canadian Open

Krishnan's playing style was known as "touch tennis" Critics hailed Krishnan as marvel, He received the Arjuna Award in 1961, the Padma Shri in 1962 and the Padma Bhushan in 1967

Krishnan now lives in Mylapore where he manages a gas distribution agency. Ramesh Krishnan emulated his father's achievement of winning the Wimbledon junior title, and went on to become a leading Indian tennis player in the 1980s.

Ashok Amritraj is an Indian-American tennis star, athlete and film producer. He is chairman and CEO of the Hyde Park Entertainment Group and was formerly CEO of National Geographic Films. He played tennis professionally in his youth

Ashok Amritraj and his elder brothers Anand and Vijay, were among the first Indians to play in top-flight international tour tennis. In 1999, Amritraj partnered with film producer David Hoberman to start a film financing and production company Hyde Park

Entertainment

Amritraj has produced over 100 films during his 35-year career with collective worldwide revenues in excess of $2 billion He was appointed as the first

United Nations India Goodwill Ambassador for the 17 UN Sustainable Development Goals

In December 2018 Amritraj was appointed a Chevalier of the Ordre National du

Merit . He serves on the Producer's A2025 committee to advance inclusion & equitable opportunities at the Academy of Motion Pictures & Arts

Chettinad Vidyashram hosts Legis Festis

Chettinad Vidyashram hosted the 11th edition of Legis Festis, its flagship annual legal symposium at the Kumararajah Muthiah Hall at the school premises

Held in loving memory of the school's beloved Correspondent, Dr Meena Muthiah, the event brought together students from leading schools across Chennai to celebrate legal awareness, critical thinking and ethical advocacy under the theme Veritas Semper Vincit (Truth Always Conquers).

The symposium was inaugurated with an invocation, followed by a welcome address by President Saikrishna Vijay and Secretary A. Deeksha, who highlighted the enduring legacy of Legis Festis in nurturing future leaders grounded in justice and integrity.

The occasion was graced by R. John Sathyan, Senior Advocate and State Public Criminal Prosecutor and District Judge S. Selva Sundari, Secretary, High Court Legal Services Committee, as chief guests

In their inspiring addresses, they encouraged students to uphold truth, fairness and compassion in the pursuit of justice.

Principal Dr S. Amudha Lakshmi emphasized the importance of legal literacy in shaping responsible citizens, while Vice-Principal James Allwin urged participants to pursue excellence with perseverance and ethical conviction.

R. John Sathyan, S. Selva Sundari, Amudha Lakshmi James Alwiin and other guests

The winners of the competitions

Students showcased exceptional advocacy and analytical skills in events such as Moot Court, Client Counseling, Legal Drafting, Parliamentary Debate and Symposium impressing judges with their confidence, reasoning and eloquence.

The event concluded with a thought-provoking mime performance on justice and equality, followed by the prize distribution ceremony. BVM, Adyar was adjudged

Best School in the Senior Symposium, while PS Senior Secondary School secured the Best School Award in Moot Court

The Legis Festis again reaffirmed Chettinad Vidyashram's commitment to fostering informed, articulate and socially conscious young citizens through meaningful engagement with the principles of law and justice, Dr Amudha Lakshmi said.

Namma Theru Pelathope from Aug 7

Namma Theru: Our Design, a three-day neighborhood street initiative by Pelathope Urban Living Lab (PULL) in partnership with PLUS and Be Fantastic will be held from August 7 at Pelathope in Mylapore.

According to a press release, Pelathope will transform into a living neighborhood laboratory with interactive exhibitions, heritage experiences, creative workshops, public art, storytelling and traditional games.

This initiative builds on the conversations that began during the Pelathope Open House, evolving over the past year into collaborative research on Pelathope's ecology, mobility, culture and everyday life

Residents can register for these free events that include Community Dot Exchange, a collaborative workshop that invites participants to create evolving kolams together by building upon one another's designs; another on learning from kolam practitioners; a panel discussion on Reimagining Pelathope; and listen to stories of water and Pelathope.

'Conserving House No. 40', a guided heritage tour with conservation architect Apoorva

Iyengar, will take participants on the architectural significance, history and ongoing conservation journey of a historic home from Pelathope

Over three days, the thinnai would transform into a vibrant space for storytelling, making and collective reflection through interactive installations, participatory activities and community gatherings.

Theru Talkies is an interactive installation where everyday objects unlock oral histories and memories of Mylapore.

Memory Canopy is a walk beneath a canopy created from community-donated saris, celebrating the shared stories and collective spirit of the neighborhood.

Oral Histories of Mylapore is a moderated discussion where guests share an evening of stories, memories and conversations exploring the people, places and everyday life that have shaped Mylapore across generations.

An inter-generational storytelling workshop by Aparna Raman is also lined up. The organizers invite people to sign up to volunteers for the workshops, with visitor engagement, logistics and documentation.
